

February 16, 1973

SENATOR BURBACH: We will, Senator Carsten, Epke and myself will gone back to Washington for Council of State Government on taxation and L.B. 132 is set for final reading on the 19th. I would like to ask unanimous consent that it be set for Thursday instead of a Monday because we would like to register our vote in support of L.B. 132 which is a bill that came from the Interim Tax Study Committee.

SPEAKER: You've heard Senator Burbach's motion. Are there objections. Any objections? He's asking unanimous consent, that was to set 132 for Monday? Did the Chair understand?

SENATOR BURBACH:: For Thursday.

SPEAKER: Thursday. Thank you. Are there any objections? Hearing none it is so ordered.

CLERK: Presented to the Governor for approval: (read).

SPEAKER: Thank you.

CLERK: Reading. Letter from Attorney General (read).

(End Belt #4)